Mid-session Concert Performances (2-week sessions only)

Mid-session concerts are just as challenging and exciting as final concerts and many families come up to spend the day. Families are welcome to take their camper out to dinner after this concert. We ask that campers stay through the entire concert to support their fellow campers. Campers must sign out with their counselors before they leave. Staff will let you know what time campers are due back at camp depending on the planned evening activity.

ADA Accessibility at Caz

Cazadero's public areas are fully accessible. Our ADA parking is on the blacktop next to our dining hall/lodge. There is a paved path leading from the blacktop to the performance amphitheater, as well as to ADA restrooms. Arrive at the usual concert entrance and let staff instruct you how to access the blacktop parking from there.

Lost and Found

Please check the lost and found at the end of camp! Every session sees an assortment of unclaimed items left at camp. Please make sure to double check the tent deck, deck railings, and Lost and Found table for things belonging to your camper. If labeled, left behind items are collected and brought to the Berkeley office. Call or email if you are missing anything. Unclaimed items are discarded or donated, whichever is more appropriate.

Cazadero Music Camp: Mission

For over 65 years, Cazadero has offered a dynamic music program that strikes a thoughtful balance between in-depth music education and summer camp fun. We provide a nurturing, inspirational, and deeply educational camp experience for young musicians ages 9-18 with a highly supportive camp structure.

Cazadero maintains a high ratio of staff to campers, about one staff person for every 3 campers. This helps guarantee a healthy, happy, and safe camp environment. Staff at camp include directors, conductors, music faculty, music instructors, health officers, counselors, and counselors-in-training. All of our staff has a proven passion for teaching and mentoring youth, and for making sure that all of our campers have an exceptional and safe musical and social experience at camp!

Attendance Requirements

Cazadero is a residential camp focused on the study of music. Each session is carefully designed to give campers a coherent and progressive musical experience, both solo and ensemble. This begins at check-in and ends with check-out. We cannot accommodate late arrivals, early departures, or mid-session breaks.

Staff: All staff is thoroughly screened and vetted. Staff at camp fall into three main categories:

- Music Education: Conductors, Music Faculty, Music Instructors
- Camper Care: Counselors, Counselors-in-Training (CIT), Deans, Health Officers, Camp Directors
- Camp Facility: Kitchen Personnel, Operations Personnel, Camp Store and Office Staff

A camper's primary interaction will be with their assigned counselor and CIT. Deans oversee the counseling staff, plan camp activities, and are available to address any parent or camper concerns that arise during or before the session.

Camp Safety: Emergency Preparedness

The well-being of our campers is always our absolute top priority. Cazadero has detailed emergency strategies for a wide range of situations, fire first among them. Our comprehensive, on-site emergency binder outlines specific actions for each emergency scenario. All staff members are thoroughly trained and regularly drilled on these procedures. Campers are made aware of evacuation plans early in each session and there is an emergency drill each week.

Camper Health and Safety

Camper health and safety is primary and we have a multi-layered safety structure to take care of both campers and staff.

- All participants must complete a detailed health history form including medical insurance information, consent to treat authorization, and emergency contacts.
- Caz has 2, full-time health officers on staff each week. There is a fully equipped health facility with a dispensary and isolation rooms where all medications and paperwork are securely stored.
- In addition to our onsite medical staff, arrangements are made with nearby physicians and local hospitals for consultation and emergency service.

Any time a camper is referred for medical treatment outside of camp, or is restricted from normal program participation for more than 24-hours, parents will be contacted.

Mandatory Paperwork: Health History and Camper Conduct Expectations

- Health Information: As a residential sleep away camp we require detailed medical information about your camper to ensure their health and safety while in our care. This information is collected on our Health History form. All camper families are sent an email with instructions on how to access and complete this form online. Please be thorough; information is held in the strictest confidence and is only shared on a “need-to-know” basis. We want to be able to keep your camper safe and happy while they are with us!
- Camper Conduct Expectations: We hold our staff and campers to a high standard of conduct. We are here to make music and have fun in a safe and respectful environment. Caz has developed a Camper Conduct Contract along with a list of Camp Rules that must be reviewed with your camper and signed before they arrive at camp. This will be sent to you via email. Campers will be reminded of and expected to abide by these rules while at camp.

These forms are due on or before May 1st or, if you have registered after May 1, then as-soon-as-possible after you have registered. (Paper and Spanish language versions of forms are available here:

Food Allergies and Restrictions

Our kitchen can accommodate a range of food restrictions and sensitivities including gluten intolerance, nut allergies, or lactose intolerance. Allergies or sensitivities should be described on the Health History Form. Please tell us about any special food needs so that we can have necessary stock on hand. The kitchen is relying on you to tell them how to keep your camper safe and comfortable so be thorough in your answers on the health history form. In the case of a very restricted diet, parents may be contacted by the head chef to clarify the concerns and discuss the possibility of supplemental foods.

Medications

Medications are collected during check-in at camp; pack them in an accessible place in the luggage. Medications are kept in the infirmary and health officers distribute them when appropriate. An exception is made for Epi-pens and asthma inhalers which should stay with the camper.

Packing instructions for medications:

- All medication, both prescription and over-the-counter, must be in original packaging or a pharmacy issued blister pack as pictured here. Medication sent outside of its official packaging cannot be used and will be destroyed.
- Make sure the packaging includes the pharmacy prescription label with the camper’s full name, dosage amount, delivery times, and any limitations or restrictions.
- Only send the amount needed for your camper’s time at camp. Additional information is published on the website: Music Camp>FAQ.

Camp Check-in

Both the camp health officer and head chef are present at check-in to screen all arrivals and answer questions. Campers will hand in any medications and be asked about any listed allergies or restrictions. Check-in also includes a discreet health check during which trained staff will ask about any recent injuries or illness and check for head lice.

Preparing for Camp with your Camper

Parent and Camper Orientation Meeting in May: Cazadero will hold an orientation meeting for campers and parents in May. We will confirm the exact date via email. This meeting will be via Zoom and will be recorded; the link will be shared with all camper families. The meeting begins with short presentations by the Camp Director, Executive Director, and other key staff members. Afterwards, we will open the discussion up for questions. We communicate via email so watch your inbox!

What you can do to help your camper prepare for camp! Most campers have a great time at camp but it can still feel scary leading up to that first day. Preparation can help! Thank you for taking the time to read this handbook; we hope it will provide much of the information you need to get ready for camp.

- Review the handbook together. It will help to know what to expect.
- Maintain a positive attitude while packing, getting ready, and dropping your camper off.
- Keep goodbyes short and sweet; don't minimize the anxiety but keep telling your camper that you have confidence that they will have a great time.
- Never say you will come pick your child up if they are unhappy, instead keep telling them how great camp is going to be and how much fun they are going to have.
- Keep your letters upbeat. Try not to tell your camper how much you miss them; this can make even a happy camper feel homesick.

If your camper is experiencing extreme anxiety prior to camp and you think there is something we can do to help please reach out!

Homesickness

Homesickness is a very common, though unwelcome, occurrence at camp and usually passes after about a day. The counselors and staff, mostly ex-campers themselves, are very familiar with its effects and with the best ways to counteract it. All staff receives training in how best to keep campers busy and happy and free from distress.

No Cell Phones

Caz does not allow campers to use cell phones at camp. There is no cell coverage onsite and we have found that cell phones are too powerful and distracting. Campers are asked to leave their phones at home. Any phones found at camp will be confiscated, stored securely, and returned in time for the camper to take them home.

Tips for First Time Camper Parents

Visit our website FAQs for some tips to help mitigate “kidsickness”.

Appropriate Clothing at Caz

Our campsite is rustic and, though we are not a camp focused on athletics, campers are active and outdoors most of the time. To keep everyone comfortable and prevent injury we have a few rules and a few suggestions about clothing to wear at Caz.

Okay to Wear	NOT Okay to Wear
While at Caz, campers MUST wear the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A shirt that is opaque and has fabric on all sides and under the arms and fully covers the abdomen.• Pants, shorts, dresses, leggings or skirts.• Shoes at all times; closed toes are required. (Shower shoes and sandals are ok when walking to and from the shower or pool areas.)	Campers MAY NOT carry or wear anything printed with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Language that is violent, hateful or profane.• Images of illegal activities, drugs or alcohol, nudity, or is sexually explicit.
Campers MAY wear: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tank tops with wide (2 inch +) straps• Ripped jeans so long as no underwear or buttocks are exposed.	Campers MAY NOT wear: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clothing that exposes undergarments or buttocks.

Camp Life: Some Basics

Camper Units and Accommodations

Campers are sorted by age and gender preference into groups of up to 12 with one counselor and one counselor-in-training assigned to each unit. Campers are invited to let us know if they have a roommate request; we will do our best to honor all requests but it is not guaranteed.

Campers sleep outside under the stars. Each deck unit consists of a large, wooden platform with a tent or small dorm room at one end. Camper beds are set up on the uncovered portion of the deck; counselors and CIT's sleep in the adjacent tent or dorm room.

Campers sleep on camp beds, a metal spring bed frame topped by a camp mattress. Campers only need to bring a sleeping bag, a pillow, and perhaps an extra blanket. Showers and toilets are in buildings nearby. Tents, dorm rooms, and individual shower rooms are available for privacy. Boys Camp and Girls Camp are located at opposite ends of the property.

Daily Routine While at Camp

Campers are kept busy throughout the day with a carefully calibrated combination of rehearsal time and recreation time. Reveille is at 7 AM, taps between 9 and 10 PM. In between are 3 fresh and healthy meals, large ensemble rehearsals, instrument sectionals, elective classes, afternoon free time with snacks, evening activity and tons of FUN! There is a Sample Schedule page at the back of this handbook.

Food at Cazadero

The kitchen at Cazadero offers a high-quality menu with a wide variety of fresh, nutritious, and delicious choices. Food is served buffet style with a wide range of options including a salad bar at lunch and dinner and a cereal bar at breakfast. A new Meals and Food page with more details is available on our website.

Birthdays at Caz

No one will miss a birthday while at Caz! Camp is notified when a camper has a birthday while at camp and a celebration is prepared. Campers are serenaded at dinner time by the entire camp and are given a delicious treat to mark their special day.

Snacks and Water Stations

Water stations are set up throughout the camp and will be monitored by staff for health and safety. Campers are encouraged to bring a refillable water bottle to cut down on paper waste. Fresh fruit is usually available for campers at the dining hall. The store sells a selection of candy, ice cream treats, and sodas. Campers are limited to two sugary snack items per day.

Camp Store

The store is open during afternoon free time approximately 3 times per week. Our camp store is stocked with a variety of Caz merchandise, food treats, and miscellaneous necessities such as batteries, shampoo, toothbrushes, etc.

Camp Store Credit Account

Parents can create a store account for their camper to use during the session. You can set this up with our Store Account form or you can call the office at 510-527-7500. Once an account is set up campers simply tell store staff what they would like and the cost is deducted from their available credit.

A typical account is $25-$40 per week. There is a detailed price list on the online order form. You will receive an email when the account set-up form is available.

Keeping in Touch with Your Camper

Mail

Letters and Postcards:

Everyone loves to get mail; just remember to keep the message upbeat and positive. Allow 5 days for mail to reach camp. Mail is collected from the Post Office in town every weekday to be distributed at camp.

Parents of one week campers will need to mail their letters before the session begins in order for their letters to be received at camp. Alternatively, you can hand off your letters when you drop off your camper and we will deliver them on the days you specify.

Care packages are welcome but should be small and contain NO food. Food will attract wildlife which is unsafe.

Phone calls

Under normal circumstances campers do not have access to phones while at camp. Caz is a Cell-Phone Free Zone and camp does not have any phones dedicated to camper use. We have found campers adjust best to camp with no direct contact home.

Messages from parents can be delivered to campers. Contact the camp office at 707-632-5159 or the Berkeley office at 510-527-7500. Messages will be transcribed and delivered at the next convenient moment. If you have any specific concerns or worries, our camp deans are available to return your call and talk to you about how your camper is doing.

In the case of an emergency campers will be able to use a camp phone to contact home. Additionally, parents can contact camp at any time. After hours, the office phone at 707-632-5159 is set to roll over to the director's cabin.

First Day of Camp: Auditions and Major Ensemble Assignments

First Day Orientation Meetings and Electives

After check-in campers will gather with their new tent-mates and counselors and retire to their units. Campers will be introduced to the camp layout, procedures, and rules of conduct (see Addendum 2 for camper rules). They will start to learn about the camp schedule and electives.

After lunch there is an all camp orientation in the Lutt Amphitheater. Elective classes for the session are announced and described. Campers can begin to think about their choices for the upcoming week. Counselors will help campers finalize these decisions during this first afternoon.

There is an audition the first day of camp: This is for seat placement, part assignments, and jazz ensemble participation.

First Day Auditions

At the end of the all-camp orientation, campers are introduced to their music faculty for the session. Campers will gather with their faculty in a quiet spot to have first day auditions.

The audition will consist of:

1. one or two level-appropriate scales
2. part of a piece that the camper has prepared
3. a short piece of sight reading chosen by the instructor.

Prepared pieces do not need to be memorized, bring your music with you. Those interested in the jazz ensemble should prepare a separate jazz style piece as well and let staff know that they are interested in auditioning for jazz.

Part assignments, chair seating, and ensemble placement will be determined on the basis of this audition. Results are announced after dinner, before the first ensemble rehearsals begin in the evening.

Major Ensembles

All musicians except piano and guitar are assigned to one of the three major ensembles: Orchestra, Concert Band, or Jazz Ensemble. Led by a new guest conductor each week, major ensembles rehearse two to three times a day for 60-90 minutes at a time. Conductors will assess the group on the first day and then choose the music for the week. This will be the music performed in the final concert on the weekend.

Jazz Ensemble (by audition only): If a camper is interested in being considered for the Jazz Ensemble they must let their music instructors know so they can be assessed during their first day audition. Jazz Ensemble participation will be limited to one week even in the two-week sessions. This gives more campers the opportunity to participate. Jazz band instrumentation consists of trumpet, trombone, saxophones, and rhythm section (bass, guitar, piano, and drums).

Alternatively, a jazz improv workshop elective is available every session, for any and all instruments. This class meets for an hour every day and perform at camper ensemble night.

Ensuring a Safe and Welcoming Camp Environment: Board Approved Policy

Policy Against Harassment and Discrimination Involving the Camp Community

It is the policy of Cazadero Performing Arts Camp (CazPAC) to provide a camp environment that is free from all forms of discrimination or harassment. CazPAC prohibits sexual harassment as well as discrimination and harassment based on a camper's race, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or disability. CazPAC will not tolerate harassing or discriminatory treatment of campers by other campers, their family members, CazPAC employees or contractors. Additionally, CazPAC forbids retaliation against any individual who reports an incident of harassment, opposes harassment or participates in an investigation of a complaint of harassment.

Prohibited harassment includes the following behavior:

- Verbal conduct (whether in person or transmitted electronically) such as name-calling, derogatory jokes, slurs or comments to or about a camper;
- Visual displays and written communication, such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings, gestures, or email or text messages;
- Physical conduct including assault, unwanted touching, intentionally blocking normal movement or interfering with work; and
- Retaliation for reporting or threatening to report harassment.

In addition to the examples of harassment described above, for the purposes of this policy, "sexual harassment" is defined to also include:

For faculty or staff to camper interaction: any sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, whether or not welcome.

For camper to camper interaction: unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, written, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature that has a negative impact on a camper's experience.

Complaint and Resolution Procedures

Complaints of violations of this policy or any other issue of concern should be reported to a counselor, to a Dean, or to the Camp Director. CazPAC will conduct an appropriate investigation of complaints and take all appropriate steps to remedy any harassment or discrimination in violation of this policy.

In some cases, CazPAC may be required by law to report harassing conduct to law enforcement or child protective agencies.

Creating A Welcoming Environment for Transgender and Gender Nonconforming Campers and Staff

CazPAC is committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for the entire camp community including those who are transgender or gender nonconforming. CazPAC will not tolerate discrimination or harassment of campers or staff based on their gender, gender identity or gender expression. See Policy Prohibiting Harassment and Discrimination Involving the Camp Community.

During camp, attendees and participants may use the restrooms and sleeping facilities that correspond with their gender identity. CazPAC will use the name and gender pronouns as requested by the participant with the following exceptions: when necessary to obtain medical treatment or for other legal reasons or when the community member asks CazPAC to use the pronouns that coincide with their gender assigned at birth. Similarly, CazPAC will not disclose information about a participant's transgender or gender nonconforming status without their permission except when required by law or to obtain medical treatment. Transgender and gender nonconforming campers and staff may discuss and express their gender identity and expression as openly as they choose and may decide when and with whom to share private information.

Any campers, staff, or families who have questions about CazPAC's policies concerning transgender and nonconforming campers should contact CazPAC's Registrar, Executive Director, or Camp Director.

Visiting

Unscheduled visits to camp are not allowed. In the case of an emergency, please call the camp office, 707-632-5159, to alert camp and make a plan.

Laundry

There are no laundry facilities at Caz so pack enough clothing for the entire session. Parents planning to attend the mid-session concert can bring extra, clean clothes to make an exchange of laundry with their camper.
